

Constitution day (26th November, 2019) ceremony report

Constitution day was celebrated on 26th November, 2019 in ICAR- IIWM, Bhubaneswar, Odisha. Dr. S.K. Ambast, Director administered the “Preamble” of the Indian constitution to all the staff members of the institute and all were informed about the course of activities including interactive talk or discussion on Citizens’ rights and duties scheduled during this auspicious occasion. The detail of the programmes organized in the institute given below-

(1) Reading of “Preamble” by all the staff members

Staff members are reading “Preamble” at ICAR-IIWM, Bhubaneswar on 26.11.2019.

(2) Interactive talk on “Fundamental Duties” Article 51-A of Indian constitution

Interactive Talk delivered by Dr. Prabhakar Nanda (Principal Scientist), Dr. R.K. Panda (Principal Scientist) and Dr. P. S. Brahmanand (Principal Scientist) on “Fundamental Duties” Article 51-A of the Indian constitution with emphasis on 11th FD (Provide opportunities for education to children). The staff members of institute took active participation through exchange of ideas on this topic.

Talk on “Citizens’ duties and rights” organized for ICAR-IIWM Staff on 26-11-2019.