Invitation for Quotation for Development of E-Learning Course for iGOT Karmayogi Platform

ICAR-Indian Institute of Water Management (ICAR-IIWM), Bhubaneswar invites quotations from reputed and experienced agencies/vendors for development of an interactive e-learning course on “Water Saving Technologies in Agriculture” for the iGOT Karmayogi platform (for a minimum period of one hour).

The course content shall be developed strictly in accordance with the Capacity Building Commission (CBC) guidelines and in consultation with the Karmayogi Bharat Team, wherever required. The course shall be designed for uploading on the iGOT Karmayogi platform and shall fulfil all prescribed technical and quality standards.

The assignment will include instructional design, content development, multimedia integration, graphics/animations, audio-video components, quizzes, knowledge checks and assessments, as appropriate.

Separate prices may be quoted for 1. Video Shoot and 2. 3D Modelling/Animation

The selected vendor will be required to develop the course in a platform-compatible e-learning format as per iGOT Karmayogi specifications and applicable Government of India guidelines. The vendor should have demonstrated experience in e-learning/multimedia course development, preferably for Government departments, ICAR institutions, educational/research organisations or similar agencies.

Quotations should include the technical approach, relevant experience, proposed timeline, detailed financial quotation, applicable taxes and payment terms.

The selected agency will coordinate with ICAR-IIWM subject matter experts and incorporate necessary revisions before finalisation.

Interested vendors may submit quotations addressed to The Director, ICAR-IIWM, Bhubaneswar, by the prescribed date and through the mode specified as detailed below.

The Director, ICAR-IIWM reserves the right to accept or reject any/all quotations as per applicable rules.

Submission deadline and method: 28.09.2026 5.00 P.M. (Either email: director.iiwm@icar.org.in or Registered Post: To The Director, ICAR-Indian Institute of Water Management, Post. Rail Vihar, Chandrasekharpur, Bhubaneswar, Odisha, 751023 or By Hand)
